

Corporate Chronicles from Page 25

BJ's Brewhouse Restaurant & Brewery at Chandler Fashion Center won a gold and silver medal at the Great American Beer Festival in Denver, Colo. Info: 480-917-0631, www.bjsbrewhouse.com.

Signs By Tomorrow is open at 1929 E. Ray Rd., Suite 4, in Chandler by Danna Casey and Susan Mason. The visual communications consultant company utilizes state-of-the-art sign-making technology to offer a wide variety of customized sign products and services that provide creative and affordable solutions to businesses of all sizes. Info: www.signsbytomorrow.com.

Carolyn J. Brown, a Harbour Club resident and CEO of The Accountant's Office, LLC, accepted an invitation from Phoenix Mayor Phil Gordon to serve on the International Women's Day steering committee. Brown will serve on the Ambassador Circle to seek out corporations who want to sponsor the March 6, 2007 event. Info: 480-219-4285, Carolyn@TheAccountantsOffice.biz.

Carolyn J. Brown

Williams Gateway Airport will add Sky Value USA passenger service to Chicago Dec. 1. The public charter service will be offered twice a week from Williams Gateway Airport to Gary-Chicago International Airport, located 25 miles from downtown Chicago. Fares start at $79 each way. Info: 866-796-6117, www.flyskyvalue.com.

Dream Dinners invites the community to learn about the meal preparation company and its franchise opportunities at its grand opening 6-8 p.m. Nov. 9 at 1661 S. Val Vista Dr., Suite C-102, Gilbert. The event includes 100 free Dream Dinners herb crusted flank steaks, raffles/drawings, giveaways and fundraising for Phoenix Rescue Mission. Info: 480-503-3663, www.dreamdinners.com.